What is SHARP Workplaces?

Community Legal Assistance Society (CLAS) and Ending Violence Association of BC (EVA BC) have partnered to provide legal advice, education and information to address workplace sexual harassment in British Columbia.

Who are we?

CLAS is a non-profit organization providing legal assistance to British Columbians.

EVA BC is a provincial association providing training and support to anti-violence programs.

What is workplace sexual harassment?

Workplace sexual harassment is unwelcome sexual behaviour that you experience at work or has a connection with your work.

Examples of sexual harassment include:

Unwanted touching, patting, or hugging

Sexual staring, gestures, teasing, or jokes

Showing sexual or suggestive materials or comments, including sexting

Repeated unwanted invitations or attention from someone at work

Feeling you must accept sexual behavior to get hired, keep your job or get a promotion

Disrespectful comments about someone's gender presentation

Sexual assault

Get legal advice:

If you have experienced sexual harassment at work, you can receive up to five hours of free, confidential legal advice from a lawyer.

We provide:

- Advice on how to address sexual harassment in your workplace
- Information on your legal options
- Help with reviewing or drafting documents
- Coaching to guide you through a complaint or legal process
- Referrals to services for additional support, such as counselling, employment services, and peer support

What we don't do:

- Lawyers with SHARP Workplaces cannot go to court or tribunals for you
